Paul is 15 years old. He is a lovable young man who would make a wonderful addition to any type of family. Paul is easy to get along with and enjoys spending time with his friends. Most of the time, Paul is well behaved and has good problem solving abilities. On occasion, Paul might skip doing his homework or get into an argument with a peer. Paul is bored with the academic part of school but likes the social and athletic parts. He manages to get average grades in the 10th grade but could do better if he wanted to. Paul has expressed an interest in becoming a police officer when he grows up. His own personal experiences have led him to have a desire to prevent crime.

Though Paul is placed in a group home, there is no doubt that he would do well in a family environment. Paul is resistant to moving away from the community in which he is comfortable. Paul will need a family to take their time developing a relationship before he accepts them as potential adoptive parents. Contact Kate Riznyk 1-888-998-1811.
